

The hydrated lime injection system is designed to eliminate problems related to injecting hydrated lime in your process. Storage, handling, dosing and feeding have been engineered to reduce maintenance and keep the plant clean. High-efficiency filters, seal-tight enclosures and vacuum wetting device have all been designed so you can enjoy the cost benefits of using hydrated lime in your process and keep the operating cost to a minimum.

